Wait a decade to find a home

REPORTER

JON SHARMAN

london.newsquest.co.uk

More than 1,500 people in the borough have been waiting 10 years or longer to be assigned a council house, a Freedom of Information request by the Kingston Guardian has revealed.

Kingston Council's response to our request also shows that more than 2,100 people have been waiting for between five and 10 years for a home.

At the end of the last financial year, 7,390 people were on the authority's housing waiting list – more than the number of homes available, which is about 4,000.

The authority and housing associations can house about 400 people per year.

A man from Kingston, who asked not to be named, said he spent 18 months on the waiting list after suffering a heart attack, and losing his job and home.

He added: "One of my friends has been on it for about six years.

"You get prioritised and you get pushed further and further down.

"They could sort out this homeless thing with the amount of empty office blocks around here.

Council housing: The Alpha Road estate

Deadlinepix KT66546

"On the estate where I live there are lots of empty properties."

Dr Mike D'Souza, from the One Norbiton community group, said: "I don't think [the council] is doing all it can, but I think it's certainly moving well now.

"You have to build the houses and find the land in a borough that's fairly crowded already – but we are a richer borough than most."

Jill Preston, chairman of the Cambridge Road Estates Community Group, said in one case a family of four was housed temporarily in a one-bedroom tower-block flat.

She added: "The only answer would be more social housing built – which is why we get so upset about student accommodation being built in vast quantities."

Council leader Kevin Davis said: "It is a real issue and the last administration simply did not build enough housing to meet that waiting list.

"Can we house the entire list? No. But we are working hard to find a way to significantly increase the amount of council-owned housing stock.

"We will be ready to make announcements on this in the new year."

Liberal Democrat opposition leader Liz Green said: "If we hadn't had right-to-buy in the 1980s we would have a lot more council houses.

"We did quite a lot to get people out or to encourage them to downsize. We need to build more affordable housing – what we are always short of is the large homes."

A council applications officer said: "It is not possible to state exactly how long applicants have been registered for housing, only how long they have been waiting in their current priority band.

"However, for the majority of applicants, these two dates are the same."

High-priority people include existing tenants who need a bigger or better-adapted home, homeless households in temporary accommodation and those with disabilities.

SEX ASSAULTS: A man has been jailed for four months for sexually assaulting a woman and a child within moments of each other in Kingston. Marcel Lucian Dinica, 31, from Edgware, was sentenced at Wimbledon Magistrates' Court on December 4. The offences took place in Wood Street on October 23.

IN COURT: A New Malden woman will appear in court next week charged with running three brothels in the borough. Denise Oliver, 45, of Springfield Place, New Malden, is charged with keeping a brothel in Burlington Road, New Malden, and two in St James Road, Surbiton. Miss Oliver will appear at Kingston Crown Court on December 23.

WRONG MAN: On October 24, 2014, we published a story under the headline "Phones 4U robbers who donned burkas and threatened staff with meat cleaver jailed", which wrongly identified Mr Aneel Khan of Gloucester Road, Kingston, as one of two people convicted of an armed robbery on Putney High Street. Although one of the people convicted of this offence was named Aneel Khan, he was not the Aneel Khan living in Gloucester Road. The convicted man was Aneel Khan of Great Woodcote Park, Purley. We apologise to Mr Khan for this error which came from a Metropolitan Police press release with a wrong address.

TORY WINNER: Conservative candidate Jack Cheetham has been elected to Kingston Council in last week's St James ward by-election. He won with 1,123 votes, beating Liberal Democrat candidate Annette Wookey by 258 votes. Just over 39 per cent of 6,718 eligible voters turned out to the polls.

GOODWILL TO ALL: A selection of festive messages from across the borough this yuletide

Wishing everyone a merry Christmas

● Zac Goldsmith, Richmond Park and North Kingston MP:

"Christmas is a time to slow down, reflect and give thanks. I am truly grateful to all who deliver the vital services we need in Richmond and Kingston."

"Christmas has long been associated with feasting and gift-giving, and although it has become increasingly commercialised in recent years, there are many who will not have the comfort of family or shelter, and I know residents will reach out to them as well."

"May I wish you a very happy Christmas."

● Kevin Davis, Kingston Council leader:

"The central message of Christmas is one of love. In a religious sense it is about God's love for the world but for us today, in Kingston, it is about the love we have for our friends, our family, our neighbours and how we share that with them on Christmas Day."

"Every new year needs to start with optimism and if I have but one wish it is that in 2015 we could all commit to one act of kindness and compassion to someone we do not know – Kingston cannot easily change the world but we can change our borough."

● Kate Grimes, Kingston Hospital chief executive:

"Wishing everyone a happy and healthy Christmas from all at Kingston Hospital."

"It has been a very busy year for the hospital. Our maternity services were given the highest safety rating and we won a national patient safety award for our dementia care."

"The hospital held its first ever open day in June and launched a new pathology service across south-west London and we secured £100,000 to boost volunteering services; and recently launched our dementia fundraising appeal."

● Rt Revd Dr Richard Cheetham, Bishop of Kingston:

"The last year has seen the best and the worst of human life. In August we remembered the centenary of the outbreak of the terrible carnage of the First World War, and just days ago came the news of the heinous terrorist attack in Pakistan."

"But we have also had the inspiring example of health workers volunteering to go to West Africa to tackle ebola."

"As we celebrate Christmas, and look into what 2015 might hold, I hope that the way of love, shown in Jesus, will guide our lives."

● Chief Supt Glenn Tunstall, Kingston police borough commander:

"While our festive best wishes are extended to one and all, if you are thinking of committing any crime on our borough during this festive period or into the new year, we look forward to meeting you and introducing you to our very own Scrooge – otherwise known as the custody sergeant."

"Please remember that your policing team will be working over the Christmas period to keep you safe and I am sure they would welcome your festive messages on Twitter: @MPSKingston."

● Edward Davey, Kingston and Surbiton MP:

"In wishing everyone a Merry Christmas, I hope your 2014 was as happy as mine when Emily and I were blessed with the birth of our daughter Eleanor: I'll always be grateful to the wonderful staff at Kingston Hospital."

"This year has seen real progress in everything from free school meals for infants to more young people benefiting from Vince Cable's expansion in apprenticeships."

"Yet there are plenty of challenges ahead as we continue to tackle the deficit while investing in public services."

FOOD BANKS: Growth in few years phenomenal

Food for thought at Christmas time

REPORTER

jon.sharman@london.newsquest.co.uk

The growth of food banks since the global financial crash six years ago has been huge.

A new report, Feeding Britain, published this month, showed there are now more than 400 in the church-based Trussell Trust's network alone, up from fewer than 50 in 2008-09 – with an especially precipitous rise since 2010's general election.

The phenomenon has become something of a political football – campaigners and opposition politicians claim families and the vulnerable are being hit by Government cutbacks, while ministers insist people just cannot resist a free meal.

Writing in the Mail on Sunday ahead of the report's publication, Archbishop of Canterbury Justin Welby said of a family he met at a foodbank: "They were ashamed to be there. The dad talked miserably. He said they had each been skipping a day's meals once a week in order to have more for the child. They weren't careless with what they had – they were just up against it."

Tim Thornton, Bishop of Truro, wrote in the cross-party report: "We heard stories and gained firsthand experience that led us to the conclusion that the rise in the use of food banks does indicate a deeper problem in our society; the 'glue' that used to be there is no longer there in many instances."

But he also said he witnessed "some of the worst aspects of human nature" in people who tried to abuse "any system that is put in place".

Food banks such as Kingston's, run by the Trussell Trust, nominally give out only three emergency packages a person in a six-month period, and people in need are given trackable vouchers that have serial numbers.

But workers say outside agencies – numbering in the dozens and including GP surgeries and nurseries – are often pressured by people into handing out more vouchers than they should.

Food mountain: Produce piled high before being distributed

Deadlinepix WA80136

Chris Steer, from Kingston Foodbank, said: "Sometimes the agencies don't balance it up. We wouldn't front that up here, we would front that up with the agency."

Volunteers err on the side of caution, she added, rather than risk not giving food to someone who genuinely needs help.

Another volunteer said: "We get so frustrated. It wasn't supposed to be like that. We're actually not doing people any favours."

But it is not all bad news, with kind-hearted people of Wandsworth raising more than £8,400 worth of food to help needy and vulnerable people over the Christmas period.

A staggering 3.2 tonnes of canned, dried and long-life food have been donated in Tesco stores across Wandsworth.

This also included a 30 per cent "top up" on all donations by Tesco. All the proceeds will go to food bank charity the Trussell Trust and the food redistribution charity FareShare.

The authors of Feeding Britain, who want to establish a national food task force with the same name, are pushing for a

On the front line: Kingston Foodbank volunteers Clifford Littleworth and Grace Bernard-Mbakileki

"zero-hunger" Britain, and that includes eliminating food waste from retailers, farms and at home.

They wrote: "Our anger knows no bounds that hundreds of thousands of tonnes of perfectly edible food which is euphemistically termed 'surplus', is destroyed at a substantial cost, when it, alone, could eliminate hunger in our society."

Pantomime has taken over our theatres. Whether it be amateur dramatics groups hamming it up with gusto or big name stars surrounded by professional extras, cries of "he's behind you" and a large man dressed inexpertly as a woman can be found treading the boards this winter. Most are running well into the new year so if you haven't lined up a show yet NICK HITCHENS reports on some of the shows in south-west London

co.uk/vibe

GARETH GATES

POP IDOL: Croydon's Fairfield Halls has enlisted the help of pop star come West End actor Gareth Gates for its production of Snow White and the Seven Dwarves.

Supported by Witney White in a brave colour-blind casting as the leading lady, formidable baddie Siani Owen and panto veteran Patrick Quinn, this is a bold production full of quality musical numbers and bawdy innuendo.

● Snow White, Fairfield Halls, Park Lane, Croydon; until January 4, evening and matinees, £17-£30; 020 8688 9291, www.fairfield.co.uk

WITNEY WHITE

JERRY HALL

Who's the FAIREST?

HALL TOGETHER NOW: Jerry Hall dazzles as arch baddie Queen Morgiana in Richmond Theatre's version of Snow White, as the Texan supermodel-turned actress cackles and insults her way through the show.

However her efforts are at risk of being overshadowed by the performances of the dwarfs, particularly Loopy, who goes the whole show as a mute before bursting into a Susan Boyle song at curtain call.

● Snow White; Richmond Theatre, the Green, Richmond; until January 11, with matinee and evening performances; £42.50 - £11.90; visit atgtickets.com/venues/richmond-theatre.

Vibe OTHER SHOWS

GIGANTIC BATTLE: Epsom Playhouse is staging a youth theatre production of Jack and the Beanstalk.

● Jack and the Beanstalk; Epsom Playhouse; January 14-17 at 7.30pm (with a Saturday matinee at 2.30pm); £8 to £16; epsomplayhouse.co.uk.

OFF TO LONDON: The Secombe Theatre hosts Carshalton Pantomime Company's Dick Whittington in Pantoland.

● Dick Whittington in Pantoland; Secombe Theatre, Cheam Road, Sutton; January 16-31, 7.30pm, matinees 2pm Sundays, 2.30pm Saturdays; £14 to £12; suttontheatres.co.uk.

BOTTOM OF THE EARTH: Join Little Bulb for a journey to the South Pole - an enchanting world of snow, ice and some of the most wondrous creatures on Earth.

● Antarctica; Battersea Arts Centre, Lavender Hill, Battersea; until January 4; adults £14, children and concessions £9; babes in arms free; bac.org.uk.

PAN'S PEOPLE: Head to Neverland for swashbuckling fun.

● Peter Pan; Polka Theatre, the Broadway, Wimbledon; until February 14; adult and children £17.50, concessions £11.50; polkatheatre.com.

CINDERELLA

GOING TO THE BALL: The New Wimbledon Theatre has taken on another classic fairy tale - Cinderella.

Producers have embraced technology and a modern vibe and audiences should expect pyrotechnics, current chart-toppers and even 3D glasses.

Dallas Star Linda Gray is this year's big celebrity crowd-drawer, making her panto debut as possibly London's first ever "Yee-hah" Fairy Godmother.

She is joined by Matthew Kelly, Wayne Sleep - who suffers himself to be the centre of an ugly sister twerk sandwich, and top comedian Tim Vine.

● Cinderella; New Wimbledon Theatre, The Broadway, Wimbledon; until January 11; evening and matinees, £11.90 to £37.90; atg tickets.com

IN NARNIA: If you fancy a family-friendly show with a touch more gravitas, Kingston's Rose Theatre is staging an adaptation of CS Lewis's children's book The Lion, The Witch and the Wardrobe.

Step inside a spectacular world of mythical creatures, winter themes, and with strong Christian overtones, a story very much in keeping with the season.

The show combines a cast of adult performers with budding talent courtesy of the Rose Youth Theatre.

● The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe; Rose Theatre, High Street, Kingston; until January 4; £10-£27; 020 8174 0090, rosetheatrekingston.org.

Conditions of acceptance of advertisements

General

1. The following conditions apply to the placing of an order for insertion of advertisements in Newsquest Media Group ("Newsquest") printed or electronic publications. Each order will form a separate agreement and English law will apply. Any change to these conditions must be agreed by us in writing (which means by exchange of letter, fax or email). An "advertiser" means any person or organisation placing an advertisement on their own account or on behalf of another.

Contents

2. The advertiser confirms that the advertisement complies with all applicable legislation, regulations and codes of practice, including the codes supervised by the Advertising Standards Authority. We may reject or require changes to any advertisement so as to comply with legal or moral obligations placed on us or the advertiser; to avoid infringing the rights of a third party or any relevant code of practice; or to meet our published production and quality specifications.

3. The advertiser further confirms that:

- i) the publication of the advertisement will not breach any contract, infringe the copyright, trademark or other right of any third party and is not libellous of any person;
- ii) all licences and consents from third parties necessary for the publication of the advertisement have been obtained and paid for, including consent from living persons identified in copy or pictures (photographic or otherwise);
- iii) in respect of an investment advertisement, the contents have been approved by, or the advertiser is, and authorised person within the meaning of the Financial Services Act 1986 as amended or the advertisement is otherwise permitted under that Act.

Payment

4. All advertisements must be paid for in full at the time of booking unless credit has been agreed. The price shall be the amount fixed by our published rate card on the date of acceptance of the order plus VAT where applicable. For non-credit advertisers, we will cancel publication of an advertisement that has not been paid for on time. For credit advertisers, we will cancel publication of any future advertisements if payment is not made in accordance with our payment terms. For credit advertisers, interest will be charged on late payments at the rate of 3% above the Bank of England's base lending rate from the date payment is due together with the administration costs of collecting an overdue debt.

5. By placing an order with us, an advertising agency confirms that it contracts as principal with full authority from its client in all matters connected with the order and is responsible for all payments due. We will only accept advertisements from advertising agencies if they are recognised by us.

6. We will try to give notice of increases, but we reserve the right to change our advertising rates at any time. This will not affect contracts, including any fixed term agreement for a series of advertisements.

Box numbers

7. We will use reasonable efforts to forward replies to box numbers within a reasonable time, but we are not responsible for any failure or delay caused by circumstances beyond our reasonable control, or for any losses relating to an advertiser's business or any loss that is not reasonably foreseeable by both parties.

Cancellation

8. We will notify the advertiser of the latest time that orders can be cancelled (the "booking" deadline) and the latest time that advertising copy can be received by us ("the copy deadline"). An advertiser may cancel up until copy deadline and we will make reasonable efforts to re-sell the space, but the advertiser will be liable for the full price if the space is not sold and we will reclaim any unearned volume-based discount. Private advertisers booking by telephone or online may cancel in accordance with relevant law, but no refund shall be available after the copy deadline unless cancellation is due to our negligence. If the copy is not received by the copy deadline, we will not be liable if the advertisement does not appear, but the advertiser will remain liable to make full payment for the price of the advertisement.

9. We will try to satisfy an advertiser's request regarding the positioning of an advertisement, but no guarantee of position can be given unless agreed by us and paid for at the rate then current.

Errors

10. We are not liable for any error, misprint or non-appearance of an advertisement unless caused by our negligence, in which case the advertiser will be entitled to a re-insertion or proportionate refund. The advertiser is solely responsible for checking the advertisement on each insertion and ordering correction where necessary. Except where we have been negligent, we shall not be liable for an error or misprint that, in our reasonable opinion, does not materially detract from the advertisement. We shall not be liable in any case for losses relating to any business or public fund-raising for the advertiser, such as lost customers, revenue or profit.

Copyright

11. Advertisements are accepted on condition that we have the right to publish them online as well as in any booked titles. The copyright in work or material we contribute to or re-work for an advertisement belongs to us. We will dispose of advertiser's copy, artwork, photographs or other materials after six months unless collected.

General

12. We shall not be liable if our publishing activities are restricted or prevented by any law, act or event beyond our reasonable control (including, for example, industrial dispute). In such case, the advertiser shall accept publication when available or otherwise may cancel the order by written notice and pay only for work done and materials used.

13. We will use the advertiser's details for internal administration. Unless the advertiser tells us not to in writing at any time, we may also share details with other Newsquest companies or with carefully selected third parties, who may send information about goods and services.

14. The advertiser will be liable to pay us for all costs, losses, expenses and damages of any kind suffered or incurred by us as a result of legal claims or actions, actual or threatened, arising from the advertiser's breach of these conditions or the publications of the advertisement, unless caused by our own negligent act or failure.

15. We may cancel the order at any time if the advertiser breaches these conditions and the breach is not capable of remedy or it continues for seven days after we have given written notice of it, or if we reasonably believe the advertiser is unable to pay debts or the advertiser goes or threatens to go out of business.

Method of payment

We will be pleased to accept your payment by any of the following methods:

- CHEQUE - Made payable to NEWSQUEST (LONDON) LTD.
- BACS - Electronic Bank Transfer
- CASH - Paid to one of our Branch Offices.
- CREDIT/DEBIT CARD - Please phone to pay by Visa/Mastercard/Switch/Delta

September: Ashted CC skipper Tom Deighton, left, was smiling after securing the Surrey Championship Division Two title, as well as reaching the National Club T20 finals day. There were also celebrations at Beddington, who won promotion to the Premier Division as runners up

THE SPORTS REVIEW OF THE YEAR 2014

January: Herne Hill Harriers youngsters, above, started the year in fine fettle winning nine medals, including golds for Saskia Millard and Eloise O'Shaughnessy, at the South of England Athletic Association Indoor Championships

December: After dominating the flyweight scene at amateur level, Beddington's Charlie Edwards, above, turned pro by signing for Eddie Hearn's Matchroom Boxing

November: Rosslyn Park managing director Shaun Justice unveiled the £1.5m redevelopment work at the Rock that would keep the club stable for another 135 years of competition

October: Emotions hit their peak when AFC Wimbledon finally beat the franchise. The 3-2 win came in the Johnstone's Paint Trophy

July: Wandsworth borough retained the London Youth Games Jubilee Trophy, finishing with 1,193 points – a best-ever total at the Games

February: Carshalton Athletic boss Stuart Massey, above, admitted it would be a tough ask to keep the Robins in the Ryman Premier League, and so it proved as relegation was confirmed with five games remaining. Massey was given the job of guiding the Robins to promotion the following season, but a torrid run of results led to his sacking, and the arrival of Rob Scantlebury in October

2014 – it's been emotional

by TIM ASHTON

tim.ashton@london.newsquest.co.uk

Depending on which way you looked, 2014 was a year of highs, lows, almost-runs and promises of what lies ahead.

The excitement at AFC Wimbledon on the eve of the new League Two season was reaching fever pitch after boss Neal Ardley's summer recruitment of strike partnership Adebayo "the beast" Akinfenwa and Matt Tubbs.

And it is proving a fine move with a mouth-watering FA Cup third round tie against Liverpool to look forward to.

Crystal Palace had a more tumultuous start to the season when Tony Pulis walked out to be replaced by Neil Warnock.

Alan Dowson ended a seven-year stay as Kingstonian boss after they missed out on promotion via the play-offs – a disappointment also suffered by Sutton United, while Leatherhead and Whyteleafe enjoyed promotion.

But the biggest smile belonged to Wandsworth's Joe Joyce after the heavyweight boxer won gold at a canter at the Commonwealth Games.

He said: "Just a great feeling, it's the biggest crowd I've come into and to get the gold medal at such a great multi-sport games, it's been a great experience. I'm just over the moon."

Watch this space for Joyce, and Charlie Edwards, who turned professional with the promise of big things to come.

April: There was double celebration in non-League football circles as Whyteleafe, above, won promotion to Ryman Division One South as champions, and Leatherhead, thanks in part to the goals of Tom Bradbrook, pictured below, held their nerve in a penalty shoot-out to reach the Ryman Premier League

SP81226

June: Alan Dowson, left, brought an end to more than seven years as manager of Kingstonian FC, he would reappear as boss of Hampton & Richmond Borough in September. Meanwhile, Mark Aldred, above far left, Imogen Walsh and Jess Eddie of London Rowing Club all returned from the European Championships in Belgrade with medals
